Financial Research Administration Workshop Faculty

Faculty members for the Financial Research Administration Workshop present in detail financial issues faced by the financial research administrator. The three-member team includes expertise in post award, financial, departmental, compliance, costing, audits and other areas of grant and contract financial management. The faculty truly works as a team, integrating into their presentations case studies and real-world scenarios in order to maintain good stewardship and manage risks. The faculty maintains current knowledge of issues and trends facing financial research administrators.

As a financial research administration faculty member, one must not only have an in-depth knowledge of financial issues in a variety of institutional settings, but also personality, charisma and a sense of humor. Each faculty member must have detailed knowledge on a broad spectrum of financial issues. He/she must have interacted with faculty, researchers, university leadership and committees, the federal government and auditors sufficiently to provide the audience with real life experiences. He/she must also have had experiences working in a decision-making capacity in order to present to the audience the complexities of the job and institutional environments.

Each faculty member must a senior financial research administrator who is also a good communicator and teacher. Throughout the workshop presentation, he/she must be able to couple their experience and expertise with the topics presented.

Examples of Topics Covered:
OMB Circular A-21
OMB Circular A-110
OMB Circular A-133
Time and Effort Reporting
Cost Sharing
Recent Audits
Allowability
F&A Cost Proposal
Cost Accounting Standards

The position is a three-year commitment with 2-3 sessions per year around the country. Workshop sessions are 2 ½ days. NCURA provides an honoraria for each session you teach and reimburses for all travel.